Prince Bismarck Continues To Battle With the Ultramontanes.

The Pope Indicted as an Ally of France.

BERLIN, Dec. 5, 1874.

The Reichstag was to-day engaged in the discussion upon the return of the Pope to the papacy. The Ultramontane clergy, who are the most ardent supporters of the Pope, have been very active in the discussion of the return of the Pope to the papacy. The Ultramontane clergy, who are the most ardent supporters of the Pope, have been very active in the discussion of the return of the Pope to the papacy.

Princess Bismarck also spoke. He said that, upon reading the report of the late debate in the Chamber, he discovered that he had expressed conciliatory sentiments which he must now withdraw, because he did not desire to expose himself to the misrepresentation that the Imperial government sought peace with Rome upon any terms. Germany recognized the Pope as the head of the Catholic Church, but required no legislation at the Vatican. If negotiations with the Pope are necessary they can be conducted through the Ambassador to Italy. So long as the Pope would not allow the clergy to break the laws of the States in which they have diplomatic relations between himself and Germany were useless. The Vatican desired a victory for France in the late war; that could be proved.

In conclusion Prince Bismarck said he would meet Herr Windthorst in discussion on this subject again in the Prussian Diet.

FRANCE.

An Exciting Debate on the Question of University Control.

The Bishop of Orleans Breaks an Episcopal Lance with Radicalism.

PARIS, Dec. 5.—Evening.

The National Assembly has been engaged in an exciting debate for the past two days on a bill, which was supported by the clerical deputies, for freeing the University from the control of the State. The principal speakers were Bishop Dupanloup, Legitimist, and M. Challemeil-Lacour, radical deputy for the Bouche-du-Rhône.

Bishop Dupanloup, in the course of his remarks to-day, passionately declared that danger to society was to be apprehended from the friends of those who favored the shooting of the Archbishop of Paris.

On the conclusion of the discussion the bill passed its second reading by a vote of 533 against 433.

RUSSIA.

Imperial Propagandism for International Fraternity.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 5, 1874.

The Russian government has sent notices to the various Powers inviting them to participate in the conference to be held here for the resumption of the discussion of the question submitted to that lately held at Brussels.

OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 5, 1874.

Parliament has been further prorogued to the 15th of January, the House of Commons having passed a resolution to that effect. The Dominion director shows the revenue of the Dominion for November to have been $2,230,550, and expenditures $1,994,780.

MORTALITY IN MONTREAL.

The Death Rate Larger Than in London or New York—Opposition of French Physicians to Vaccination.

MONTREAL, Dec. 5, 1874.

The Star in an editorial this morning on the city mortality gives statistics from the Health Department showing the number of deaths in eleven months to be 5,290, of which 661 were from smallpox. This is only for the city proper. Outside the limits there have been 1,020, of which 130 were from smallpox. This makes the death rate of Montreal 16 per 1,000, as compared with New York and twice as heavy as London, England.

The Star concludes by calling on the Catholic clergy to advocate the vaccination of the French doctors, who oppose it.

THE INDIAN CAMPAIGN.

Movements of Miles' Command—Operations Delayed from Want of Forage.

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 5, 1874.

Lieutenant General Sheridan this morning received the following despatch—

CAMP ON THE WASHITA, TEXAS, Dec. 1, 1874.

Miles' encampment is at the head of the timber on the Washita. He has nine companies of Infantry here and another will be up soon from Camp Supply. Major Compton, with four companies of Cavalry, is on the Sweetwater, sixteen miles distant. The four companies of the Eighth Cavalry are at Adobe Walls. The troops have suffered from lack of food. The Returning Board Developing Its Intentions—A Republican Legislature To Be Counted In—Retribution Threatened—A Sporting Proposition from Kellogg in Settlement of the Substantial Question.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 5, 1874.

There is great excitement and indignation to-day over the action of the Returning Board yesterday in refusing to count De Soto parish. The law provides that the returns shall be made out in triplicate—one to be sent by mail and one by messenger to the Secretary of State, the other to be deposited with the Clerk of the District Court.

Bean, the Supervisor of this parish, refuses to supply the returns that should be left with the Secretary of State for the Returning Board, and has left for Washington. The conservatives, in this emergency, produced before the Board, the triplicate left with the Court. It is the only legal return in the State, yet the Board refused to count it, in the face of a precedent they set in the parish of Orleans.

ARKANSAS.

Paying the Expenses of the Baxter-Brooks War—Lawlessness Throughout the State.

LITTLE ROCK, Dec. 5, 1874.

The lower House of the Legislature to-day passed a bill appropriating $1,577 to pay William E. Woodruff, editor of the Little Rock Gazette, for two twelve-pounder Parrot guns, purchased in Texas for the Baxter forces during the Brooks-Baxter war.

The morning papers contain accounts of the following murders.

On the 1st inst. Isaac Buffin, confined in the Crittenden County Jail on the charge of outrage, was shot by John Smith, while ploughing in his field. Pleasant Hill, Franklin county, was shot and killed by Thomas Dameron. On the same day, near Roseville, a son of Captain James Sewell shot and killed Harry Williams. A man named Smith, on the 1st inst., a son of Seth Spangler, a member of the present Legislature, was killed in a personal quarrel with John Smith, a member of the Legislature. On the 2d inst. George Lester was shot and instantly killed by Edward Stronge. No arrest is reported.

LITTLE ROCK, Dec. 5, 1874.

The House passed a bill to-day changing the time for the Congressional elections from the first Tuesday in November to the first Monday in September, the day of the general election.

ALABAMA.

A Contested Seat Question Settled—How Spencer Became Senator from Alabama—Democrats Undoing Radical Work.

MONTGOMERY, Dec. 5, 1874.

The State Senate has ousted Miller (Republican) and seated Martin (Democrat). As this affair is of national importance the following review of the case is given:

On the organization of the Attorney General's Commission in January, 1873, a quorum of the court from republican representatives was seated in the House. In the Senate the republican majority was 19 to 17. The republican majority was 19 to 17. The republican majority was 19 to 17.

THE VICKSBURG TROUBLES.

No Solution of the Question Arrived at—Proclamation from Governor Ames.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Dec. 5, 1874.

All is quiet about the Court House to-day. Deputy Sheriff Cleavis is nominally executing the duties of Sheriff. A card issued this morning, signed by Sheriff Crosby, states that he signed a resignation five days ago under protest, and asks that the Governor should be notified of the resignation.

THE MISSOURI GRANGERS.

Proceedings of the Executive Committee at St. Louis—Recommendations in the Interest of the Section.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 5, 1874.

The Executive Committee of the Missouri State Grange, which has been in session here for several days past, adjourned to-day, after transacting considerable business pertaining to the order. A series of resolutions were adopted approving of the effort now being made by citizens of St. Louis to open direct trade between the Mississippi Valley States and Brazil by steamship lines from New Orleans to Rio de Janeiro.

The resolutions also recommended the grangers of the valley States to adopt resolutions requesting their Representatives and Senators in Congress to give their support to Captain Rags' plan for the immediate improvement of the mouth of the Mississippi River.

WASHINGTON.

The Message To Be Sent to Congress at One O'Clock on Monday.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5, 1874.

The secretaries and clerical force at the Executive Mansion are to-day engaged in making final copies of the Message for the press. It will be sent to both Houses of Congress about one o'clock on Monday.

REPUBLICAN POLITICIANS URGING THE PRESIDENT TO RECOMMEND SUBSIDIES FOR A SYSTEM OF INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS.

The President has been beset for several days by influential politicians who wished him to put in his Message a strong recommendation of immediate and large appropriations to begin, at once, an extensive system of internal improvements. These persons argued that it is not the third term but the general stagnation of business which caused the republican defeat, and that liberal appropriations by the government are needed to set the people to work. The arguments were to the President induced him, it is asserted, to put into the Message a recommendation of a permanent appropriation of funds to a number of projects, but discussion in the Cabinet and the recommendation of several Cabinet officers to-day persuaded him, it is believed, to modify and perhaps to leave out his recommendation. This report, which circulated very privately among prominent republican members of Congress to-day, caused a flutter of excitement. It was thought among those who believe themselves well informed that the President had not, this afternoon, finally made up his mind on the matter.

MARSHALL O. ROBERTS' CLAIM FOR CARRYING THE MAILS.

A claim of Marshall O. Roberts against the government for carrying the mails, involving $1,000,000, was heard last year before the Court of Claims, which was unable to decide it, the members being a tie on the question. It comes up for a rehearing, and will be virtually decided by ex-Secretary Richardson, as he has been made a Judge of the Court since the former hearing. This will be the first case on which he will pass.

AN ADDITIONAL MAIL FROM WASHINGTON TO NEW YORK—THE FORTHCOMING APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE POSTAL SERVICE.

Postmaster General Jewell has received replies from the Baltimore and Ohio, Philadelphia and Baltimore and Pennsylvania Railroad companies according to his proposition to carry an additional daily mail on the one o'clock P. M. train from Washington to Philadelphia and New York. The arrangement will go into effect on Monday next.

The members of the House Committee on Appropriations had a long interview with the Postmaster General at the Department to-day, with a view to making the appropriations for the postal service hereafter more in detail.

THE SAFE BURGLARY TRIAL.

Illegality of the Grand Jury which Indicted the Conspirators—The Proceedings Declared Nullities.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5, 1874.

The full bench of judges of the district to-day decided that the late Grand Jury which indicted the safe burglars was illegally chosen, and that therefore the safe burglary trial and all others under indictments found by that Grand Jury are nullities. The matter came up on the case of Huff, who was found guilty of stealing a horse and carriage from the Continental Hotel of this city. His counsel appealed, and the case has been decided against the legality of the Grand Jury.

Movements of the Swatara After Her Departure from Cape Town—Heavy Weather Encountered—Observing Parties Safely Landed at Their Destinations—Hospitalities to the Officers.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5, 1874.

The Navy Department has a report from Commander Chandler, commanding the Swatara, dated Bluff Harbor, N. Zealand, October 16, mentioning the departure of that vessel from Cape Town on the 17th of August to continue her voyage with the transit of Venus observing parties. The ship encountered a heavy gale on the 30th of August and was forced to under close reef and storm sails, but sustained no damage, and the deck was lumbered with material for building houses at the Crozet and Kerguelen islands. A violent gale was also met on the 1st of September while the vessel was anchored at American Bay, Possession Island. The Swatara landed the Kerguelen Island observing party at their station, including their half a dozen of the observing parties, Commander Chandler says, on what is truly

THE COMING JACK SHEPHERD.

Ingenious Device for Stealing Letters by a Boy of Fifteen—Attempted to Escape by Digging Through the Wall of the Lockup.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 5, 1874.

Last evening a boy about fifteen years old, named Charles Carleton, belonging in Brooklyn, N. Y., was arrested for stealing two letters from the letter box in the Post Office, in which were two checks which had been mailed by D. P. Cahoun & Co. The boy had been previously apprehended on the charge of stealing a lot of mechanical tools, and the stolen letters, which the checks were found on, were ascertained that he had stuck pins on the inclined side in the letter box, which prevented the letters from falling into the box. The boy was taken out. Last night he nearly effected his escape from the police lockup by digging a hole through the brick wall of the prison with a piece of iron.

THE SLADE'S FERRY EXPLOSION.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Dec. 5, 1874.

The names of the killed by the disaster yesterday near Slade's Ferry, are Charles Colwell and Timothy Haley, both residents of Leavenworth, Kansas, and Jeremiah Grant, of Fall River. John Quigley, of Fall River, died to-day. Henry Swift, of Somerset, though seriously injured, will probably recover. The uninjured are David Haggerty, John Halloran and J. Harkinson.

The tensile strength of the cylinder at the point where it broke was found to be about eight times the strain then upon it, and the cause of the break is as yet a mystery.
